Hamptons Employment Agency Opens New Office in Boca Raton, Florida

Clients with residences in the state to benefit from domestic staffing expertise

PRNewswire Hamptons Employment Agency, Inc May 10, 2016 8:21 AM

BOCA RATON, Fla., May 10, 2016 /PRNewswire-iReach/ -- Hamptons Employment Agency, Inc. (HEA), an award-winning domestic staffing firm, has opened its third office at 433 Plaza Real in Boca Raton, Florida. The new office will help HEA to better serve the company's clientele who maintain homes in the Tri-State area and Florida, as well as new clients with seasonal and full-time residences in the state.

Hamptons Employment Agency's expansion from Southampton and Manhattan to a third office in Boca Raton reflects the growing demand for the agency's services for thoroughly screened, well qualified domestic and event staff. "Conveniently located in Mizner Park in downtown Boca Raton, HEA's new office further demonstrates our strong commitment to meeting the needs of established as well as new clients wherever they reside throughout the year," said Aleksandra Kardwell, President of Hamptons Employment Agency.

"At HEA, our primary goal is to pair employers with top domestic professionals who meet each employer's unique needs and preferences," noted Kardwell. "We serve a wide range of clients, including some of the most well-known people in the world, and we have built our business by providing a first-rate experience for both our clients and our domestic candidates. At our new office in Boca Raton, we will provide the same friendly, professional, and ethical service that we offer through our Southampton and Manhattan offices," continued Kardwell.

Due to Hamptons Employment Agency's professionalism and client-focus, the company was voted the 2015, 2014, 2013, and 2012 Best Domestic Agency – Platinum/#1 by the readers of Dan's Papers. Southampton-based Dan's Papers has the largest ABC Audited circulation of any publication in The Hamptons year-round, and the paper is distributed on Long Island and in New York City.
